Information for Victims of Domestic Violence

1. You may obtain a copy of the police incident report for your case by contacting the law enforcement agency at the phone number on back of brochure.
2. Your legal rights include the right to go to court and file a petition requesting a personal protection order to protect you or other members of your household from domestic abuse which could include restraining or enjoining the abuser from doing the following:
 - _ Entering onto premises.
 - _ Threatening to kill or physically injure you or another person.
 - _ Assaulting, attacking, beating, molesting, or wounding you.
 - _ Removing minor children from you, except as otherwise authorized by a custody or parenting time order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction.
 - _ Engaging in stalking behavior.
 - _ Purchasing or possessing a firearm.
 - _ Interfering with your efforts to remove your children or personal property from premises that are solely owned or leased by the abuser.
 - _ Interfering with you at your place of employment or education or engaging in conduct that impairs your employment relationship or your employment or educational environment.
 - _ Engaging in any other specific act or conduct that imposes upon or interferes with your personal liberty or that causes a reasonable apprehension of violence.
 - _ Having access to information in records concerning any minor child you have with the abuser that would inform the abuser about your address or telephone number, the child's address or telephone number, or your employment address.
3. Your legal rights also include the right to go to court and file a motion for an order to show cause and a hearing if the abuser or perpetrator is violating the protection order and has not been arrested.

Information for Victims of Sexual Assault

1. You can have a sexual assault medical forensic examination and have evidence collected using a sexual assault evidence kit even if you do not want to participate in the criminal justice system or cooperate with law enforcement.
2. You cannot be billed for the cost of administering the sexual assault evidence kit. If you receive a bill for these services, contact the Michigan Crime Victim Services Commission at (517) 373-7373.
3. You have the right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency for the contact information assigned to the case, the current status of the case, whether the case has been submitted to the prosecuting attorney for review, and whether the case has been closed and the documented reason for closure.
4. If you had a sexual assault evidence kit collected and released to law enforcement, you have a right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency for the following information: when the sexual assault evidence kit was sent to a forensic laboratory for testing; whether a DNA profile was obtained from the sexual assault evidence kit; whether a DNA profile was entered into CODIS; and whether a DNA profile resulted in a CODIS hit.
5. Your legal rights include the right to go to court and file a petition requesting a personal protection order (PPO)/restraining order to protect you from the perpetrator. The PPO could order the perpetrator not to have contact with you and include other specific conditions.

For further information about Restraining Orders or Personal Protection Orders you may contact the Ottawa County Circuit Court at (616) 846-8315.
