If a child is less than 6 months, the state in which the child lived from birth with a parent or person acting as a parent. A period of temporary absence of a parent or person acting as a parent is included as part of the period. An Affidavit of Parentage is different than a birth certificate. You must include a copy of the Affidavit of Parentage with your paperwork. If you need a copy of your signed Affidavit of Parentage, contact the State of Michigan vital records department online www.michigan.gov/mdhhs or by phone 517-335-8660. The state can start a paternity or support case on your behalf without a signed Affidavit of Parentage. If you want the state to start a case on your behalf, complete the application at www.michigan.gov/michildsupport.

Step 4: Notify the Other Party

You will need a helper to complete this step. Anyone over the age of 18, but not you, can help. The other party must receive (be served) a copy of the Summons and Complaint for Custody.

Personal Service

Your helper may hand the papers to the other party and ask the other party to sign the proof of service under “Acknowledgment of Service”. By signing, the other party is only acknowledging that they received the papers. If the other party will not sign the proof of service, that is ok. Your helper can complete the middle section of the proof of service and sign it in front of a notary.

Service by Mail

Your helper can mail the paperwork to the other party. The paperwork must be sent by certified, restricted mail. Your helper will need to complete a card at the post office to request these services (green card). It will cost more to send the papers this way but it is very important that you pay the extra fee. If you do not use certified and restricted mail, someone else may sign for the papers. If someone other than the other party signs, you will need to send the papers again.

Proof of Service

You should receive the completed proof of service back from your helper. If the forms were sent by mail, you will get the green card back. Look at the front of your summons. Find the box that says “This summons expires” and look at the date. You must file the completed proof of service before this date.

For more information about serving custody papers, read “How to Serve Custody Papers” at www.michiganlegalhelp.org.

PROOF OF SERVICE

TO PROCESS SERVER: You must serve the summons and complaint and file proof of service with the court clerk before the expiration date on the summons. If you are unable to complete service, you must return this original and all copies to the court clerk.

Step 5: Register for MiFILE

MiFILE is a secure website used to file court documents. As of December 1, 2018, you must use MiFILE to file your paperwork in Ottawa County. Instructions on how to register for MiFILE are attached.

E-Filing Waiver

If you have good cause (good reasons) why you cannot e-file, you can ask the court to allow you to file paper documents. You must fill out the Ex-Parte Motion and Order for Paper Filing on an E-Filing Case (E-Filing Waiver) and explain to the court why you cannot e-file. The judge will consider access to internet, amongst other factors, when determining if good cause exists. If the judge denies your request, you must file your documents electronically in order for your case to continue. The E-Filing Waiver is not included in this packet.¹

For more information about E-Filing, read “What is E-Filing?” at <https://michiganlegalhelp.org>.

Facilitative and Information-Gathering Conference (FIG)

Friend of the Court (FOC) automatically receives a copy of your paperwork after you file. When the FOC office receives your paperwork, you will be scheduled for a FIG Conference. You should plan to attend the FIG conference about 2-3 weeks after filing your proof of service. After the FIG conference you will have a temporary order for child support, custody and parenting time.

You may call the FOC to discuss FIG conference options if you have a personal protection order (PPO) against the other party.

The number for the Friend of the Court office is 877-543-2660.

Need Help?

If you need help with e-filing, go to the Clerk/Register's Office on the 3rd floor of the Grand Haven Courthouse during normal business hours. Normal business hours are Monday through Friday 8:00 am – 5:00 pm. Please note, the Clerk's office opens at 9:00 am (instead of 8:00 am) on the first Friday of the month.

If you have questions about using MiFile, please contact support@truefiling.com or call (855) 959-8868.

Step 6: Scheduling Order

After the FIG conference, the Court will send you a scheduling order and it will explain the next steps. If after receiving it you have questions, please reach out to the legal self-help center, or contact an attorney.

Mediation

The scheduling order will have a section that talks about mediation. If you and the other party have not agreed on custody, parenting time, and child support, you will be required to attend mediation. The scheduling order explains that low-cost mediation is available through Mediation Services. You will have 21 days to let the Court know if you want to hire a mediator or use Mediation Services. There will be a link that has information on Court approved domestic mediators and their hourly rate.

*If you and the other party have agreed on custody, parenting time, and child support, you are able to submit your final order and not attend mediation. Please refer to Step 7 under agreement.

Settlement Conference

The scheduling order will have a date and time to appear in Court for a settlement conference. The settlement conference is a time for both parties to explain to the Judge what has been agreed upon by the two of you (custody, parenting time, and child support), and what you have been unable to agree on.

Step 7: Default and Entry

Answer

An answer is a written response to your complaint. The answer will let you know what the other party agrees or disagrees with. If the other party files an answer, they must give you a copy. You may receive a copy via MiFILE (if you have added yourself as a case contact) or by mail.

Agreement

You can complete a consent final order for custody, parenting time, and child support if you can work with the other party to resolve all issues regarding custody, parenting time, and child support. Both of you must agree with all terms of the final order and sign it.

- Motion to Enter Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support
- Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support

Instructions – DC

Packet 4

No Agreement

If the other party does not file an answer, you may file a default and request that the court enter a default final order for custody, parenting time, and child support.

- Default (MC 07)
- Motion to Enter Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support
- Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support.

You must include a Uniform Child Support Order (UCSO) with your final order for custody, parenting time, and child support. The FOC will prepare a temporary UCSO at your FIG conference. You may use this temporary order as a guide to prepare you final UCSO.

Step 8: Get a Hearing Date

You will need to get a hearing date before serving a copy of the Motion to Enter Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support on the other party. There are two ways to get a hearing date.

1. Go to the Clerk’s Office. Bring your completed motion to the Clerk’s Office and request a hearing date. The clerk can only schedule a hearing if your motion is complete. You cannot get a hearing date over the phone.
2. Check your MiFILE account. When you filed your motion electronically without a hearing date, the clerk will add the hearing date to your motion. You will be able to view the hearing date by reviewing your “Filed Stamped Copy” in MiFILE.

Serve the Other Party

Complete the Proof of Service for Motion to Enter Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support and Notice of Final Hearing and file it electronically.

If the other party has not added themselves as a case contact in MiFILE, you will need to serve them by mail.

Changing a Default Final Order

If you make any changes to your default final order, you must notify the other party of the changes at least 14 days before your final hearing. You can notify the other party of the changes by sending an updated copy of your proposed final order.

Changing a Consent Final Order

You cannot make changes to a final consent order without the approval of the other party. If you want to make changes and the other party does not agree, you will need to wait until your hearing and ask the judge or referee to make the changes. The judge will decide if your request should be granted.

Before Your Hearing

If you have questions about completing your paperwork, come to the Legal Self-Help Center. Make 2 copies of your Final Order for Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support, including any attachments.

Uninsured expenses exceeding the annual ordinary medical amount for the year they are incurred that are not paid within 28 days of a written payment request may be enforced by the friend of the court. The annual ordinary medical amount is _____.

Obligation Ends. Except for child care, or as otherwise ordered, support obligations for each child end on the last day of the month the child turns age 18.

Post-majority Support: The following children will be attending high school on a full-time basis after turning 18 years of age. Therefore, the support obligation for each specific child ends on the last day of the month as follows, except in no case may it extend beyond the time the child reaches 19 years and 6 months of age:
(Specify name of child and date obligation ends.)

Child Care. The parties must notify each other of changes in child-care expenses and must additionally notify the friend of the court if the changes end those expenses. The child-care obligation for each child ends on August 31 following the child's 12th birthday, at which time the total child care obligation reduces by that child's pro rata share unless specified differently in this order.

2. Health-Care Coverage. For the benefit of the children, the plaintiff defendant shall maintain health-care coverage (as defined in MCL 552.602) that includes payment for hospital, dental, optical, and other health-care expenses when that coverage is accessible to the child and available at a reasonable cost. The reasonable cost is the parent's net cost of adding the children to the parent's coverage

4. Qualified Medical Support Order. This order is a qualified medical support order with immediate effect pursuant to 29 USC 1169. To qualify this order, the friend of the court shall issue a notice to enroll pursuant to MCL 552.626b. A parent may contest the notice by requesting a review or hearing concerning availability of health care at a reasonable cost.
5. Retroactive Modification, Surcharge for Past-Due Support, and Liens for Unpaid Support. Except as provided by MCL 552.603, support is a judgment the date it is due and is not modifiable retroactively. A surcharge may be added to past-due support. Unpaid support is a lien by operation of law and the payer's property can be encumbered or seized if an arrearage accrues in an amount greater than the periodic support payments payable for two months under the payer's support order.

6. Address, Employment Status, Health Insurance. Both parties shall notify the friend of the court in writing of: a) their mailing and residential addresses and telephone numbers; b) the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of their sources of income; c) their health-maintenance or insurance companies, insurance coverage, persons insured, or contract numbers; d) their occupational or driver's licenses; and e) their social security numbers unless exempt by law pursuant to MCL 552.603. Both parties shall notify the friend of the court in writing within 21 days of any change in this information. Failure to do so may result in a fee being imposed.

7. Foster-Care Assignment. When a child is placed in foster care, that child's support is assigned to the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services while under the state's jurisdiction and to the funding county while placed in a county-funded program.

8. Redirection and Abatement. As provided by MCL 552.605d and subject to statutory procedures, the friend of the court may redirect support paid for a child to the person who is providing the actual care, support, and maintenance of that child, and shall abate support charges to zero for a child who resides on a full-time basis with the payer of support or if the payer of support will be incarcerated for 180 consecutive days or more without the ability to pay.

When friend of the court becomes aware that the payer's condition meets the definition of incapacitation as defined in the current or subsequent Michigan Child Support Formula, monthly support charges shall abate and be temporarily reduced to zero effective the date that the friend of the court office provides notice of the abatement to the parties and to the court. Support charges shall be reinstated effective 60 days after the incapacitation ends. The office shall provide notice of reinstatement to the parties and to the court that specifies the date charges will be effective.

Either party may object to the abatement or reinstatement by filing a written objection with the court within 21 days following when the notice was filed, or by filing a motion. If a timely objection is received, the friend of the court shall either set the objection for hearing or complete a support review with an effective date no earlier than the date of filing of that notice.

Based on a motion by either party or a recommendation following a review by the friend of the court, the amount abated may be later corrected based on the parties' incomes or ability to pay during the abatement period.

9. Fees. The payer of support shall pay statutory and service fees as required by law.

10. Review. Each party to a support order may submit a written request to have the friend of the court review the order. The friend of the court is not required to act on more than one request received from a party each 36 months. A party may also file a motion to modify this support order.

11. Michigan Child Support Formula Deviation. The support provisions ordered do not follow the Michigan Child Support Formula. The attached deviation addendum (FOC 10d) provides the basis for deviation and the required findings by the court.

12. Other: (Attach separate sheets as needed.)

13. Prior Orders. This order supersedes all prior child support orders and all continuing provisions are restated in this order. Past-due amounts owed under any prior support order in this case are preserved and paid at the rate calculated using the arrearage guideline in the Michigan Child Support Formula.

Deviation Addendum

The court must order support according to the Michigan Child Support Formula unless the application of the formula would be unjust (unfair) or inappropriate.

If you are following the child support formula, you do NOT need to fill out the attached deviation addendum.

If you believe application of the child support formula would be unjust or inappropriate, you may ask the court to order a different support amount by completing the attached deviation addendum. On the second page of the deviation addendum (question 2.b.) you must explain which deviation factors you relied on to determine that application of the Michigan Child Support Formula would be unjust or inappropriate. The deviation factors are listed below.

1. The child has special needs.
2. The child has extraordinary educational expenses.
3. A parent is a minor.
4. The child's residence income is below the threshold to qualify for public assistance, and at least one parent has sufficient income to pay additional support that will raise the child's standard of living above the public assistance threshold.
5. A parent has a reduction in the income available to support a child due to the extraordinary levels of jointly accumulated debt.
6. The court awards property in lieu of support for the benefit of the child.
7. A parent is incarcerated with minimal or no income or assets.
8. A parent has incurred, or is likely to incur, extraordinary medical expenses for either that parent or a dependent.
9. A parent receives bonus income in varying amounts or at irregular intervals.
10. Someone other than the parent can supply reasonable and appropriate health care coverage.
11. A parent provides substantially all the support for a stepchild, and the stepchild's parents earn no income and are unable to earn income.
12. A child earns an extraordinary income.
13. The court orders a parent to pay taxes, mortgage installments, home insurance premiums, telephone or utility bills, etc., before entry of a final judgment or order.
14. A parent must pay significant amounts of restitution, fines, fees, or costs associated with that parent's conviction or incarceration for a crime other than those related to failing to support children, or a crime against a child in the current case or that child's sibling, other parent, or custodian.
15. A parent makes payments to a bankruptcy plan or has debt discharged, when either significantly impacts the monies that parent has available to pay support.
16. A parent provides a substantial amount of a child's day-time care and directly contributes toward a significantly greater share of the child's costs than those reflected by the overnights used to calculate the offset for parental time.
17. A child in the custody of a nonparent-recipient spends a significant number of overnights with the payer that causes a significant savings in the nonparent-custodian's expenses.
18. The court ordered non-modifiable spousal support paid between the parents before October 2004.
19. When a parent's share of net child care expenses exceeds 50 percent of that parent's base support obligation calculated under §3.02 before applying the parental time offset.
20. When the amount calculated does not exceed $15, and the administrative cost to enforce and process payments outweighs the benefit of the minimal amounts.
21. Any other factor the court deems relevant to the best interests of a child.

Step 8: Attend Final Hearing

Organize your paperwork and bring it with you to court. Go into the assigned courtroom before your hearing time. The judge/referee will not look for you in the hallway. The judge may be listening to another case. That is ok. Sit quietly in the courtroom and wait for the judge to call your name or case number. When your case is called, bring your completed final order to the judge.

After Your Hearing

Go to the court clerk's office and get your copies. If your hearing is in front of a referee, your copies will not be available right away. After your hearing, the referee will bring your paperwork to the judge. The judge may not be able to sign your paperwork right away. If you provide 2 stamped envelopes (one addressed to you, one addressed to the other party), the court clerk will mail copies of the judgment once it is signed. Complete the Proof of Service for Final Order and file the proof of service electronically.
